

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL MANAGEMENT MINOR PROGRAM

The International Hotel Management program offers significant career opportunities in the hospitality industry. This program aims to develop leadership qualities, analytical thinking skills, and individual abilities, as well as to address all aspects of management concepts within the hospitality sector. Students in this program will take courses on sustainable tourism, international hotel management, financial strategy, marketing, ethics, entrepreneurship, and communication. The international dimension of the program provides students with opportunities to succeed in their post-graduation careers. This minor also includes mandatory courses focusing on fundamental business subjects such as human resources, finance, and marketing.

International Hotel Management creates career opportunities in the global tourism industry. Graduates of this minor program will have the opportunity to pursue careers in hotels at national and international levels. The international nature of the hospitality branch also offers many students the opportunity to find employment abroad.
